Our Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) used to pray long Salaat during nights. Rabiah (Radiyahallahu Anha) was a companion of Nabi (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) who used to do lots of Khidmah to our prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam).

To make it easy for our prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) to do Aamal at night, Rabiyyah (Radiyah) would keep His prayer mat, water for wudu, Miswak and other necessary things ready. Every night he used to do the Khidmah, even at the cost of not having enough sleep. The Khidmah of prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) was first to him.

Once the Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) was pleased with him very much for his Khidmah, He wanted to give him something and asked to Rabiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anhu) out of pleasure,

"What would you wish the most?"

Rabiyah (Radialahu Anhu) Was a young boy, he could've ask many things, toys or other stuffs but he started thinking what could he ask to Nabi (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam)

He thought all the things in this world are temporary, lets ask something which will be eternal.

So the young boy did not ask anything of this world rather he asked,

"Ya Rasulallah, I wish your company in paradise."

The Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) again asked him if there is anything else he wished for, it was the Sifaat of Nabi (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam), he would ask two three times.

But Rabiyyah (Radiyah) replied "This is the only thing I long for, the company with you in paradise"

The prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) said him to pray Salaat more and then He made Duaa for him too.

My Dear little hearts lets do Khidmah to the Elders, Mum and Dad, they will make Duaa for you. Always try to get the Duaa of your parents and elders. A single Duaa can change the entire life towards greate achivements in this world and in the Akhairah.

And never miss Salaat, Salaat is the key to paradise.
