Sayyidatina Sumayyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) was the slave of Mughirah Makhzoomi, who set her free upon her marriage with Yasir (Radiyahallahu Anhu). When Nabi (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) invited people of Mecca towards Islam, she embraced Islam with her husband Yasir (Radiyahallahu Anhu) and son Ammar bin Yasir (Radiyahallahu Anhu). She was amongst the first Muslimeen.

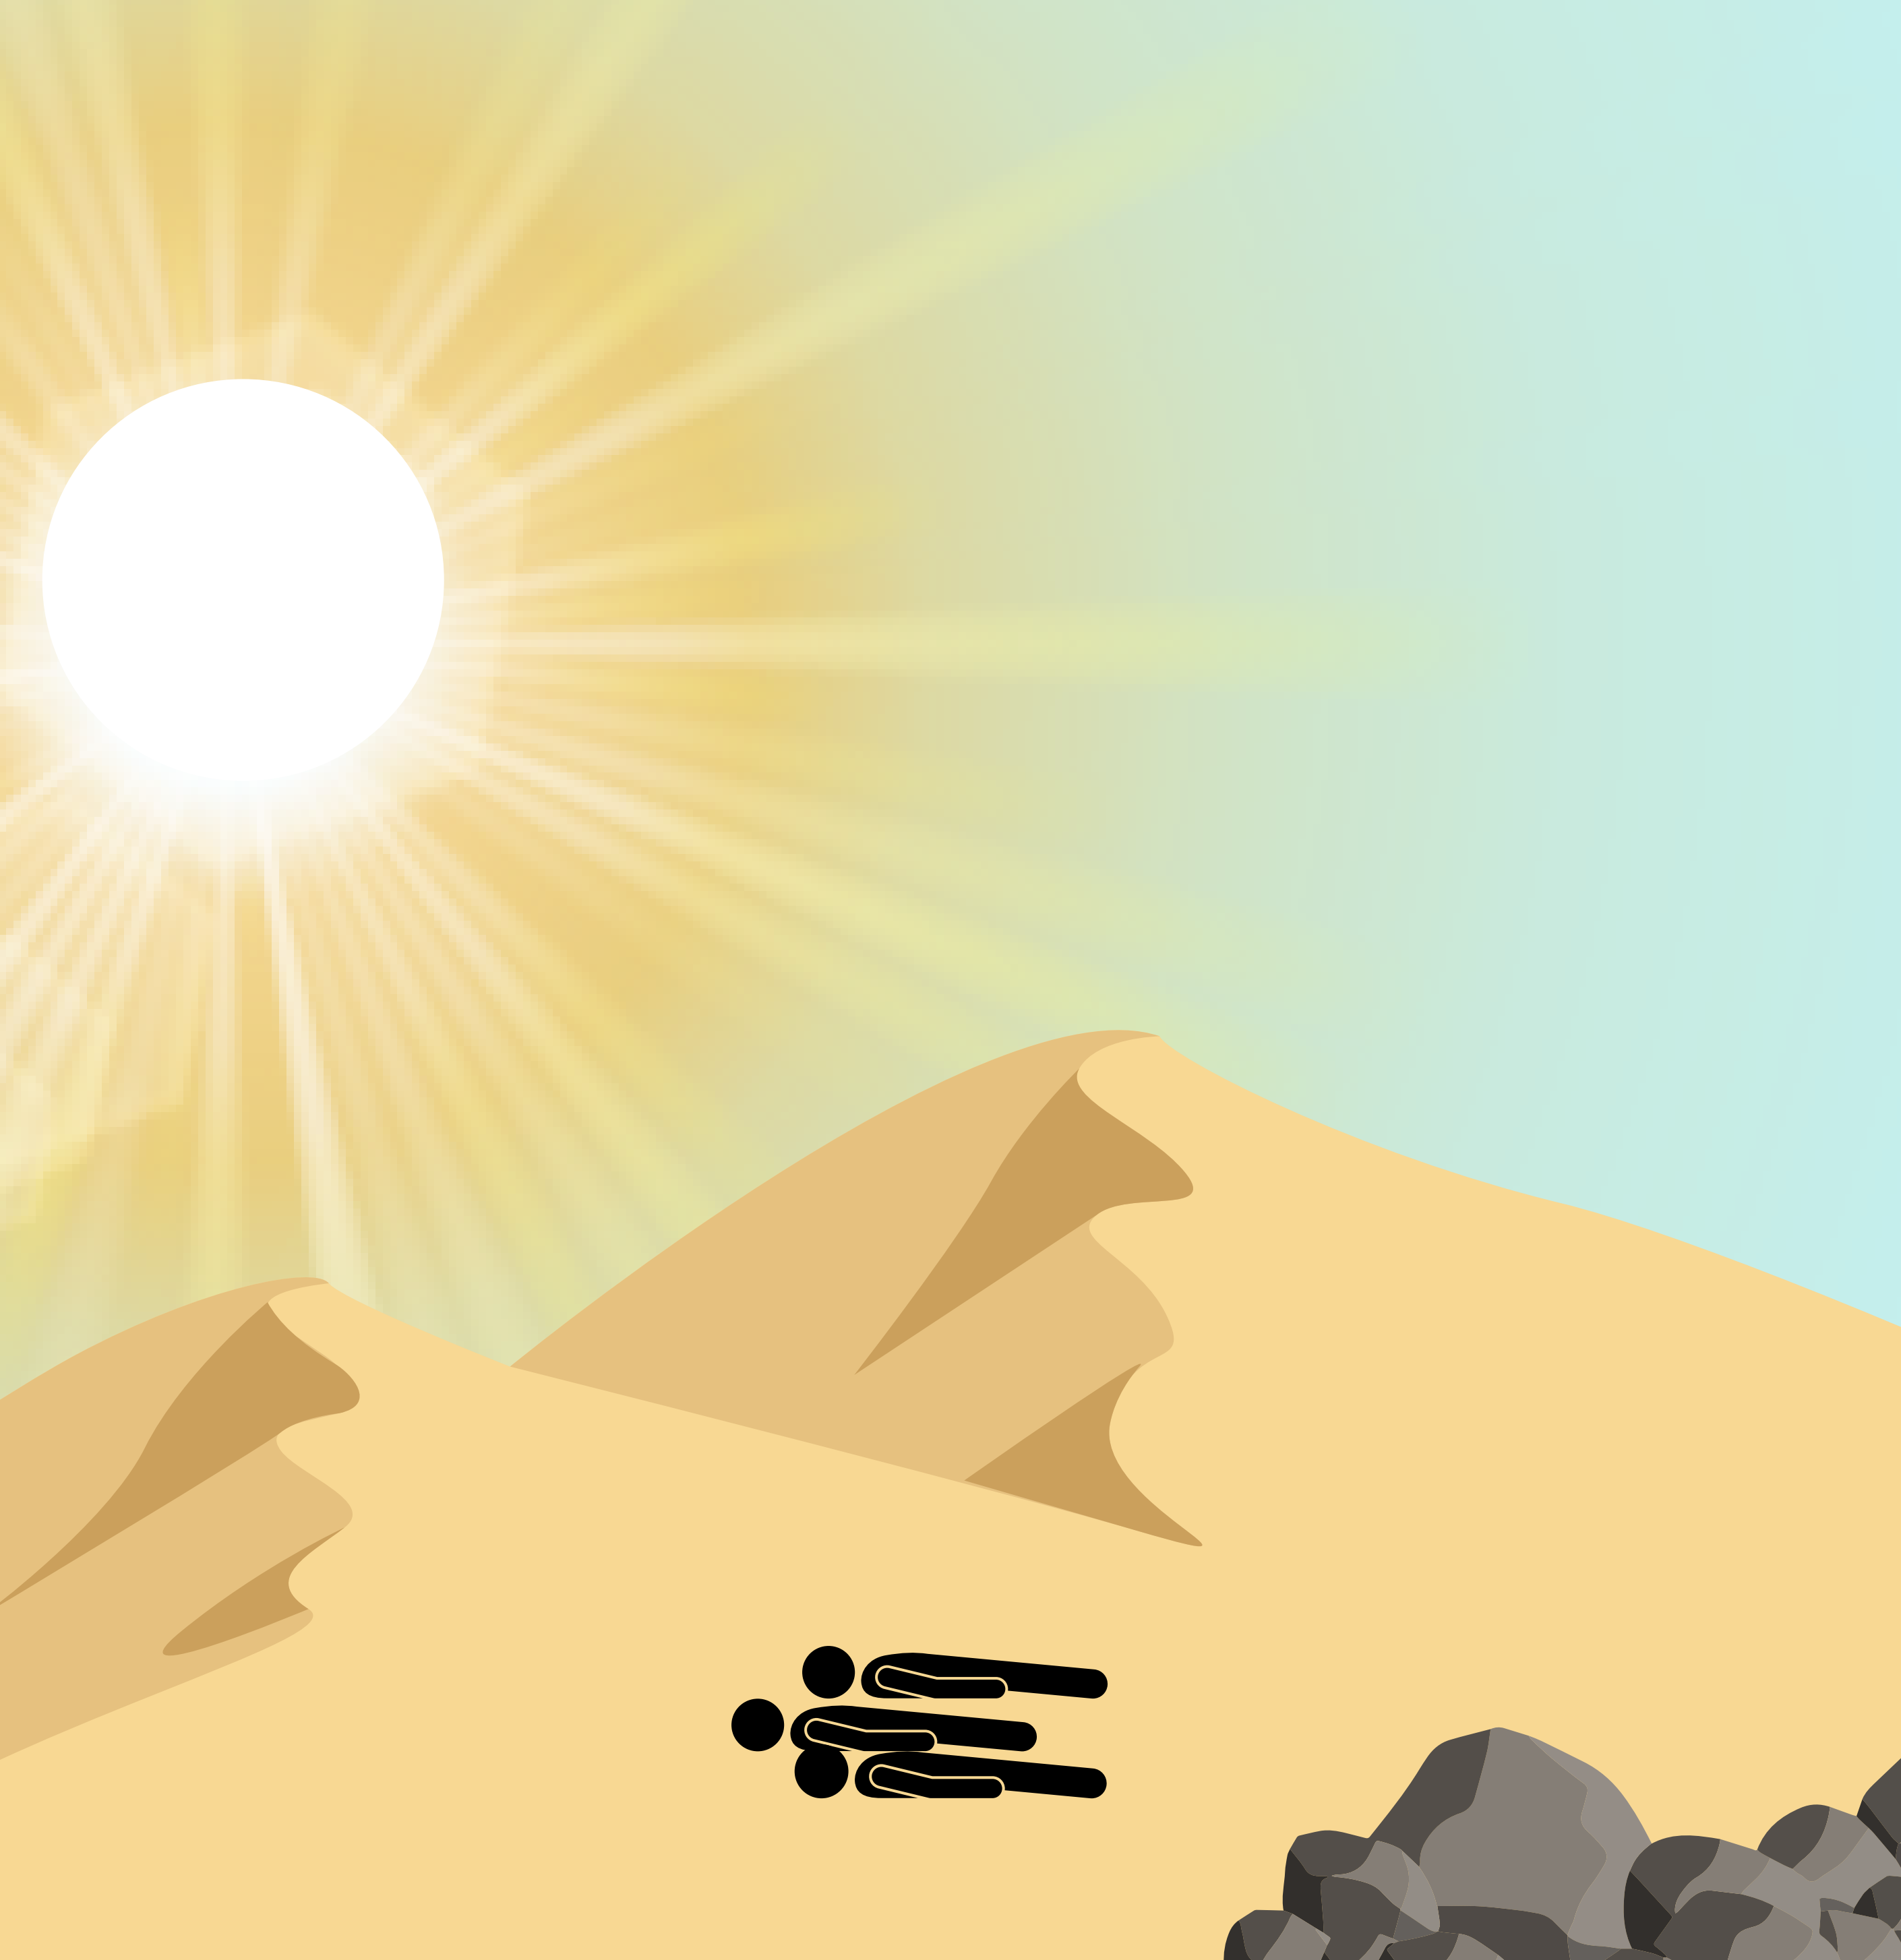

As Mughirah family was controlling Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) and her family, when they learnt about the news of Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) and her familie's conversion to Islam, they got very angry. The Kuffer used to torture the poor Muslimeen very severely, as they had no one to stand beside them. They started persecuting Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) and her family , very harshly so that they renounce Islam.

The Kuffar used to keep Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyah Anha) and her family under the heat of the sun without any water or food, they used to keep them chained so that they can't escape and renounce Islam out of thirst or hunger, but Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyah Anha) and her family remained steadfast and strong in their conviction to the true faith.

They used to keep them dressed with armers made of metals, so that the heat of the sun melts their body and because of the hardship they renounce Islam or die. it was such cruelty and torture that the world could never even think about, how these people sacrificed, bore cruelty after cruelty and still remained steadfast in their faith.

Another occasion the Kuffar put them inside the water, so that either they die by choking inside the water or renounce Islaam. Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) was an old lady but still she remained strong in her faith. Day by day the torture was getting very hard, whenever Nabi (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) would pass them He would solace them with the glad tidings of Jannah and words of Imaan. Every time that would make their Imaan more and more stronger.

Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) never got weaken in her faith and bore all the afflictions because of the love Allah SWT and His Deen, although she was in her very old age.

One day Abu Jahl was passing the way, Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) was standing there. All the effort's of Kuffer was getting failed in front of the steadfastness of this respected old lady. Abu Jahl suddenly got very angry with her and started saying bad word's to her then he put his spear through her body.

Sayyidatina Sumaiyyah (Radiyahallahu Anha) was wounded so severely that she fell in the ground and gave her life for the cause of Islam, She wore the first crown of Martyrdom for the cause of Islam by giving her life.

My Little hearts these are our Sahaba Ikram (Radiyahallahu Anhum), for a single moment they never thought to renounce Islaam rather chose to scarifies their lives. Allah SWT blessed you with this Niyamah of Islaam since birth without bearing any hardship for it, cherish this blessing in your entire life by loving this Deen and every action related to this Deen.
