During the pre Islamic time Abu Darda (Radiyahallahu Anhu) and Abdullah bin Rawaha (Radiyahallahu Anhu) was very close friends that they would consider each other as brothers, Abdullah bin Rawaha (Radiyahallahu Anhu) used to call him towards Islam but he would refuse.

Once Ibn Rawaha (Radiyallahu Anhu) came home when Abu Darda was not at home, His wife inform him that his brother had gone out. Ibne Rawaha (Radiyallahu Anhu) then went strait into Abu Darda's idol temple with an axe.

Then he throw the idol and broke it into pieces, he did it to show Abu Darda that this idol has no power to save itself even. how foolishness is to worship it.

Then he recited a couplet

"Beware! all the things partnered with Allah, is false and absurd"

Then he went away, Abu Darda's Wife came to the temple on hearing the sound of axe. When she seen the broken pieces of their idol she became annoyed and said " you ruined us (By breaking the Idol)"

Then she started crying, when Abu Darda Come back home, he found his wife weeping.

He asked his wife " what happened to you" she replied your brother came here and did this heinous act which you seeing now

The light of true guidance enlightend the heart of abu Darda and he says himself, " if it had any power it could defend itself from harm, but its powerless" then he went to Ibne Rawaha (Radiyallahu Anhu) and expressed his desire to embrace Islam.

Then he Came to the Messenger of Allah (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) with Ibne
Rawah (Radiyahallahu Anhu) and accepted Islam (Radiyahallahu anhu). My little hearts lets ponder who is our Master and how we can please him.
