In a faraway land in Abyssinia, lived a very beautiful and intelligent little girl, her name was Barakah. Her homeland was an amazingly beautiful place of mountains, waterfalls, green forests and rivers. Barakah was a very strong girl like mountains, blessed with a clean heart like the river water and her words were like waterfalls.

Barakah was living happily but suddenly one day, some people took her away from her homeland, and took her away to the deserty land of Mekaah. they put her to the Market to sell her as a slave. where she left her green land, and all the things to make the heart happy? now she became a slave. but she was a strong girl even after that.

Wherever she looked, she had seen just sandy desert, and very rough people. that was the time before Islam. people was very rough and harsh. But Allah SWT destined a very great destiny for her. when she was put in the Market, A very Noble person bought her. His name was Abdullah. He was from the Banu Hashim, Banu Hashim was the Gurdian of Kaaba from the pre Islamic period, and was known for their good behavior. When Barakah was taken to the new house, her Masters really treated with good behavior with her.

But After someday her Master had to go to a battle, his Wife Aminah was there. She was almost near to give birth a beautiful little baby.

Soon after the departure of her master Abdullah, Barakah heard the news of his demise in the battle. Barakah was young girl but at once she understood, its the time to support the wife of her Master, she used to say all the good words to support her to solace her heart.

Suddenly few days after, in one Monday night, Aminah gave birth a very miraculous baby boy, his face was more shinier than the sun, more beautiful than the moon.

Barakah hold the baby at first after his mother and see all the miraculous thing happening after his birth. she understood this baby will be a very special person when He grow up.

Soon after that the grandfather of the baby came and hold Him and call Him with the name "Muhammad (Sallallahu alaihi wa Sallam)". it was such a name nobody was called by this name before.

Barakah was blessed to look after this baby in His childhood.

When the baby turned 6 years of age, His mother Aminah decided to visit His maternal family lives in Yathrib, Barakah also went with them, after this nice trip, when they were returning, Aminah fell ill in the journey and past away, before passing away she gave the responsibility to Barakh to look after her child with motherly love.

Barakah understood she has given a huge responsibility. she brought the baby Muhammad (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) from there to Makkah to His Grandfather. but soon after that the grandfather also past away.

Barakah was there to support this little baby.

She knew how to support a heartbroken person as she went through heartbroken period too in her past when she was brought to this land and sold as a slave. She used to say all the strong and beautiful words to make Him strong.

When this baby turned into a boy He was seen to do all the beautiful works, soon at the age of 40 He got Prophet-hood from Allah SWT. Barakh was among those Sahaba- Sahabiyyah (Radiyahallahu anhum) who accepted Islam first. The Quraish started persicuting the Muslims, Barakah (Radiyahallahu Anha) was among the poor Muslimeen, she had to go through cruelty from the Quraish but she accepted all the harships with happy face.

When it was really very hard then the prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) gave them the permission to migrate to Abyssinia by ship, where a very kind king would rule the land, his name was Naggashi. Barakah (Radiyah Anha) migrated to there with her family, when the Prophet (Sallallahu alaihi wa Sallam) Migrated to Madinah, she again came back from Abbisiniya and migrated to Madinah for the love of the prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) traveling from one country was hard that time, people would travel through riding animals miles after miles, months after months just to travel from one country to another country.

During the time of Battle of Uhud, Barakah (Radiyah Anha) participated in the battle with the other ladies, they were giving water to the thirsty Mujahideen, they were helping them and encouraging them to fight with more strength. She helped Islam with such a way that once the Prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam) said her she is a Jannati women.

She was like a mother for our prophet (Sallallahu Alaihi wa Sallam), a helper, a supporter for Him. she was a great lady with all the beautiful qualities.

she was a women who fulfilled the Hukm of Allah, pleased Allah and His Rasul (Sallahu Alaihi wa Sallam)
the best way possible.

Allah SWT showed us its not the matter what is the background of a person, or the complexion of skin, to please Allah SWT we only need His obedience and pleasure. So my dear little hearts lets please Allah SWT with the best way possible.
